"Chalk it down in black and white—write it in big letters over the foot of your bed—emblazon it wherever you'll see it early and often, that Smith styles are standard, Smith prices are low, and Smith goods are quality goods." This excerpt is taken from A. A. Smith & Brother's new ad. on page 5 to-day. Better read it.

A. A. Smith & Brother have an ad. to-day on page 5 that should be read by every thinking man who cares whether he gets quality goods at very moderate prices, or whether he gets palmed off on him poor, shoddy goods at exorbitant prices. There is some heart-to-heart talk in it that will be of benefit to you. Read it.

The Daylight Store

Where to Get Them.

Not everything but the largest assortment in our city of the following kinds, kinds that are the best that the price will buy.

Dress Goods.

Here is not only the largest line in this section but kinds that are right for those tailored effects in both misses' and ladies' costumes. Dress goods that have quality that last long after price is forgotten.

Dress goods in serges and fancy weaves from 50c up to $1.00 that would cost you over most counters from 65c to $1.25 and not seem dear at that.

These Dress Goods to be made up modern should have satin trimmings. These we have in all colors at 85c per yard. (Sold in large cities at $1.00.)

Dress Trimmings.

We have not said much about Dress Trimmings. These are in a position to talk for themselves. If you look around it won't take you long to decide who has the trimmings.

There has been an increasing demand for Richings for the neck. We venture to say we have the largest new assortment in the city.

Our line of Ladies' Neckwear and Belts are this last few days' arrivals. A good assortment of Neckwear at 25c. Also satin finish Elastic Belts, same price, 25c.

We carry the Westheimer Glove. (Enough said.)

Corsets.

You may buy our best Dress Goods, use our best Laces, Braids, and Silk Appliques, and have made by an artist for a dressmaker; then if the Corset is not right in style and fit, you cannot expect to look well.

R. & G. Corsets are a little ahead of them all for shape and style, and the thing that makes them so comfortable is that everyone is steam moulded and dried, each on a separate form.

The new styled R. & G. Corsets are popular; priced only $1.00 per pair, so that any lady can afford to wear them. Call for styles 671 and A28 at $1.00.

Colder weather will interest you in the best that there is in Underwear and Hosiery. Children's Geiger double fleeced at 25c, price of poor goods; also Bennington wool, Ladies' Munsing Underwear. Black Cat Hosiery is our hobby it has proved so good to wear.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The Ladies' Universalist Union will hold a meeting in the church parlors, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. As there is business of importance, let everyone try to be present.

The pictures at Hale's pavilion to-day are good ones. "Bobby White in Wonderland" is sure to please the children, and it is quite amusing for the older folks to see as well. "Meary Wiggins' Busy Day" is one of those really funny pictures that always make a person feel happier after seeing it than before.

The third on the program to-day is the "Bogus Lord," and that is not a bit bad, either. Altogether, it's a show worth seeing.

"The Devil" is at the Bijou theatre to-day, along with some other mighty good pictures. This picture, "The Devil," was taken from the famous play of that name, which is having such a popular run in New York City just now. It is true to the drama in every detail, and for a nickel you see the same thing exactly that you would pay two or three dollars to see in New York. There have been several calls by the public for a real Scotch song, and to-day the Bijou is pleased to offer "Marry, My Heather Queen," sung by Mr. Hayward. Those who love a good old Scotch song are invited to hear this one and see the beautifully colored pictures illustrating it.

That School Wrangle.

Such a wrangle! Montpelier seminary has accused Goddard seminary of real "professionalism" in athletics and the controversy has developed into a "red hot" discussion.

Principal O. K. Hollister of Goddard, has come out with affidavits which he has put up to Principal Bishop of Montpelier, in answer to charges that certain students at Goddard seminary had been paid.

It seems rather too bad that two neighboring schools like Goddard and Montpelier should have any unpleasantness to breed hostility and war their athletic relations but if there is any "professionalism" in any Vermont school it should be weeded out, and the quicker the better. "Professionalism" is a menace to American educational institutions.—Swanton Courier.

Harpwood Not Talking.

New Harpwood of Peru takes his defeat as a candidate for re-election as Town Representative is illustrated by his conduct since in erecting an expensive marker for the site of the first school house, his declared purpose to turn over any prospective revenue from his proposed forest preserve to the benefit of the town, and his present employment of several gangs of men working upon the mountain streams endeavoring to render them more servicable for the habitation of the trout.—Bennington Banner.
